At Mudchute Farm → G24

a) Olivia and Holly are at Mudchute Farm. Complete the sentences with these words.

it  me  them  us  you  her

Olivia: Here, this is for ______ you ________.

Holly: For ______ me ________? But I don’t want a biscuit now.

Olivia: No, it’s not for you to eat. It’s for this chicken here. You can give it to him.

Holly: Or ______ her ________. Is it a boy chicken or a girl chicken?

Olivia: I don’t know. Well, give ______ it ________ a biscuit. It likes biscuits.

Dad: Hey, stop! Look at the brochure, on the first page in capital letters.

Dad: You can give ______ them ________ special chicken food from the shop.

Olivia: OK, great. Er … Dad? Can you buy some chicken food for ______ us ________ , please?

b) Bob Green shows Olivia and Holly the animals at the farm. Complete the sentences with the correct personal pronouns. Tipp: You don’t always need the object form!

1. “Here are the pigs. You can give ______ them ______ food. ______ They ______ always like to eat.”

2. “Can you see the pig over there? ______ His ______ name is Henry. ______ He ______ is five years old.”

3. “This is Julia, our dog. I often talk to ______ her ______ . I’m sure that she can understand! ______ me ______.”

4. “This is the end of the tour. Do ______ you ______ have more questions? You can always ask ______ me / us ______.”

c) Write sentences about what you think.

What do you think about chickens?

I like them.

What do you think about these cats?

What do you like about Mudchute farm?

What can you do with Sherlock?