Questions on the text
(p. 58)

1. Why does Kate send a letter and not an e-mail?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2. When Kate moved from Baltimore to Boston, how did she feel?
________________________________________________________________________

3. What does Kate write about Boston’s history?
________________________________________________________________________

4. What else does she like, apart from history?
________________________________________________________________________

5. How many colleges and universities are there in the area?
________________________________________________________________________

6. Which is the most famous one?
________________________________________________________________________

7. What is special about Cape Cod and Plymouth?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

8. What’s the name of Susie’s hometown?
________________________________________________________________________

9. What can you do with an Indian dreamcatcher?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________