Liebe Schülerinnen und Schüler, anbei erhalten Sie die Arbeitsaufträge für das Fach Englisch für die kommende Woche. Wie bisher auch habe ich versucht, die Aufträge stofflich so zu bemessen als würde „normaler“ Unterricht stattfinden.
Bleibt gesund!

Dienstag:
• read the text Ta-Na-E-Ka (pages 68 - 71)
• try to guess the meaning of the new words
• if you can’t guess the meaning, look them up in the vocab. section

Mittwoch:
• read the text again
• answer the questions on the text (I will send you the questions via mail)
• send your answers back to me (then you will also get the model solution)

Freitag:
Last week I sent you an email and wanted to know how you were, what you missed most, etc. I got quite interesting answers. Thanks for that. Some of you wrote that they have the feeling they don’t speak English very much. Today we are going to change that. Call the person you sit next to in English lessons. Have a little chat (in English of course). If you don’t have a direct neighbour, pick one of your classmates. I know that it’s kind of artificial to speak English with a German friend but give it a try... Let’s make the best out of it.

Topics could be:
• How am I?
• activities at the moment
• fears and hopes
• what do I miss
• how do I get along with the tasks
• and of course private matters

Write a short mail and let me know if you enjoyed the chat.
